

Touch down on the red planet

April 1, 2020, space log.....

It had been a tough first month to get a touch down on the red planet, and Dark Voyager was the captain. The rest of the crew were just on their way back from morning tea and spotted something not normal, a plant in the middle of space. "Hey Dark, come have a look at this," said Harry.

"No, we can do it later after, morning tea". Said Dark.

"OK, " said Harry.

" So what do you want for morning tea? " Dark said.

" What about space cookies," said Saff.

"Yeah, ok," said the rest of the crew.

"Dig in my friends," said Dark.

"Mmmmmmm they are nice space cookies," said Saff.

"Not really they are the same as normal ones because they are normal ones!!!" said Dark.

"Now can we go back out and have a look at whatever that thing was that we saw before?" said Harry.

"If you have to, but come back when you find out what ever it is," said Dark. Harry and the crew headed outside, but whatever it was, it had now disappeared into thin air.

"Looks like it's gone now Harry," Saff said after looking around. "Let's go back inside for some more space cookies!"

.....
"I wonder what happened to that alien thing from before?" Harry said.

Next minute..... something really strange happened.

"I will be back in a minute, I am just going to the toilet," Saff said.

10 minutes later.....

"I wonder what happened to Saff, she has been in there for 10 minutes. I am going to see what she is doing. I will be back in a minute," said Harry.

"Aaaaaaaaaaaaaaar"

"Did you hear that?" said Ajax.

"That was Harry," said Dark, while running down the hall way.

"What happened?" Said the crew.

"Yeah what happened?" Said Dark, stepping through the group.

"I don't know I just opened the door because she was not answering and saw this," Harry said in tears. "Saff is covered in a pink and blue goop."

The crew helped Saff clean up.

"Ok, I am sure that there is some explanation for this accident," said Dark.

"What is that," said Ajax.

"Hang on that is the alien from before," said Harry.

"No it can't be," said Dark.

"Well it is," said Harry.

"Well how did it get in here?" said Ajax.

"I don't know," said Dark.

"There must be a hole in the ship," said Harry.

Every one split up in search of the hole. Half an hour later they all met back up. "How did you go, guys?" said Dark. Everyone shook their heads. No one could find a hole in the ship. "We need to find that alien, and fast," Ajax said.

"Everyone split back up and don't come back until you find it!" said Dark.

They each took off in search of the alien. Harry looked in the meeting room. There it was... A pink, blue and purple blob sitting at the meeting room table eating the space cookies! Harry called everyone up on their radios. "Quick! Everyone to the meeting room, I have found the alien. Dark, bring the obviator gun. Let's blow this sucker back to his own planet!"

Dark grabbed the obviator and met the rest of the crew at the meeting room. "Let's do this," he said. They burst through the door and Dark shot the alien. It exploded into a huge pile of goop. "Great job Dark," said Saff, "But who is going to clean up this mess?"

The crew laughed and all helped clean it up and they went back and finished their space cookies.

"Phew, that was close," said Ajax. "But how did it get in?"

I guess we will never know.....
